

United States Army

Major General

Mark MacCarley

Deputy Commanding General
Support, First Army
Rock Island Arsenal,
Illinois 61299-8400
Effective September 15, 2010

Major General Mark MacCarley was assigned as the Deputy Commanding General, United States Army Reserve, First Army on 15 September 2010. He is responsible for assisting the Commanding General with the training, readiness and mobilization of all Army Reserve and National Guard units across the United States and two U.S. territories. He is also the Commanding General of the United States Army Reserve Support Command.

Major General MacCarley was directly commissioned as a Reserve Officer in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General Corps on September 1983. He then served as the Legal Assistant Officer, Office of the Staff Judge Advocate, Fort Sill, Oklahoma from 1983 to 1985. He transferred to the 63d ARCOM and was assigned to the 6222d USAR School as its Senior Military Police MOS instructor.

In 1988, then CPT MacCarley, he was selected as the Aide-de-Camp for the Commanding General, 63d ARCOM, followed by command in February 1990 of the 361st Quartermaster Supply Company. After command, CPT MacCarley served in 155th Corps Support Battalion as the S2-3, the Support Operations Officer and Executive Officer.

In 1997, he rejoined the 63d Regional Support Command Staff as the Liaison Officer to JRTC and NTC. On 31 July 1997, MAJ MacCarley took command of the 320th Corps Support Battalion. Following command, he returned to the 63d Regional Support staff as the DCSLOG Chief of Supply. On 2 February 2002, LTC MacCarley became the Deputy Chief of Staff of Logistics (G4).

Following his 28 month tenure as the G4, 13 of those months on Active Duty, COL MacCarley assumed command of the 7th Brigade, 104th DIV (IT). On 5 June 2005, he was recalled to Active Duty for Operation Iraqi Freedom, where he served as the Chief of Staff for the 377th Theater Support Command (FWD) for 15 months. Returning home, he was assigned as the Chief Regional Emergency Preparedness Officer – Region IX.

On 3 April 2007, COL MacCarley was appointed Deputy Commanding General, 8th Theater Sustainment Command, followed by promotion to Brigadier General. In February 2009, BG MacCarley was reassigned to the 1st Theater Sustainment Command, as its Deputy Commanding General. In April 2010, he took interim command of the 311th Sustainment Command (Expeditionary). In March 2011 he was promoted to the rank of Major General.

Major General MacCarley is a graduate of the Judge Advocate General's Officer Basic Course, the Judge Advocate General's Officer Advanced Course, the Supply Officer's Course, Command and General Staff College, Multifunction Logistics Officer Course (90A), the Senior Officer Transportation Qualification Course, and the Army War College.